

THE BEAVERS LAW BITE

Giving Thanks for Caregivers

By Sarah Saville

November is a time for turkey, football, and pumpkin pie. November is also National Caregivers Month.

Caregivers are a group of people I have admired throughout life, even when I was too young to be familiar with the word. My grandmother, Nancy "Mimi" Bagley, unexpectedly became a caregiver when my grandfather suffered a medical emergency. Later, my mother, Mary, found herself as a primary caregiver for Mimi. Several of my closest friends have fearlessly taken on this role for their parents, grandparents, and children. Most recently, our firm has witnessed the excellent job John Beavers has done caring for Kristina.

The role of a caregiver may be rewarding and filled with cherished moments. It is also emotionally draining, with difficult choices and unglamorous duties. For many, becoming a caregiver is their first exposure to public benefits, court proceedings, and a myriad of medical and financial issues. Even though the stress can be overwhelming, these men and women tirelessly put in the days, months, and years to do what is best for someone else.

This Thanksgiving, please give thanks for the individuals who care for those who cannot care for themselves.

WE ARE SADDENED BY THE LOSS OF OUR FRIEND, THE HONORABLE ALBERT W. "PAT" PATRICK III. OUR DEEPEST CONDOLENCES TO HIS FAMILY, FRIENDS, AND COLLEAGUES.
